

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Child and Family Community Planner (Two Year Term)

The Okanagan Nation Alliance (ONA) is the Tribal Council for the eight member communities of the Okanagan Nation which includes Osoyoos Indian Band, Upper Nicola Band, Upper and Lower Similkameen Indian Bands, Penticton Indian Band, Westbank First Nation, Okanagan Indian Band and the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation. The ONA's mandate is to advance, assert, support and preserve Okanagan Nation title and rights. Further, the ONA is charged with providing members with a forum to discuss and form positions on areas of common concern.

Under the general direction of the Child & Family Lead, the Community Planner will be responsible for preparing communities to assume Child & Family service delivery once this is transitioned from MCFD to the ONA. This includes developing community plans in alignment with the ONA Plan and standards, and ensuring community-based staff, and families are prepared.

Building on the groundwork laid by our cultural values, guidance provided by both the community, and latest best practices in Indigenous family wellness, an operational model has emerged that will enable the ONA to exercise jurisdiction over our children and families. The Child & Family Plan requires a uniquely Syilx approach to service delivery that addresses complex root causes and reinforces our community's ability to create healthy environments where children are safe and thrive. The Syilx culture, the nsylxcən language, and the Enowkin'wixw process are the foundation upon which this Plan rests. Families are at the centre and cultural practices are embedded within the service delivery approach. Support and prevention are prioritized and Family Decision Making (FDM) is the guiding principle of the Syilx Child and Family Services.

Key Responsibilities:

Community-Based Planning

1. Responsible for the development of community Child & Family Plans in alignment with the ONA Plan and standards of practice through:
 - i. Conducting effective community engagement with all ONA communities assigned personnel (for example the Wellness Committee members and Health & Social staff) and community members (e.g. using focus groups, interviews etc.)
 - ii. Working in collaboration with the ONA Child & Family Nation Planner to ensure alignment with the ONA model and standards of practice.
 - iii. Ensuring the incorporation of Indigenous knowledge, beliefs, values, and best practices into the plans.
2. Collaborate with the Child & Family Nation Planner to develop the transition plan for the transfer of responsibility of Child & Family Services from MCFD to ONA and community.
3. Identify education and awareness needs within community and develop and implement strategies to build capacity to meet those needs, to ensure community and families are ready for the transition.
4. Work with the ONA Communications and Syilx Public Relations Specialist on the development and implementation of an appropriate communication plan for the communities.
5. Promote community awareness and understanding of ONA's Child & Family Plan and mandate within community and with partners.

Technical Support

1. Remain current on trends and research in order to deliver advice and support.

2. Coordinate and provide technical Child & Family support and expertise to committees and working groups as delegated by the Child & Family Lead. This may include convening and chairing meetings, developing Terms of Reference, leading planning sessions, drafting papers, crafting Briefing Notes, communiqués, policy documents, recommendations and writing reports.

Other

1. Actively participate in the Wellness staff meetings.
2. Ensure compliance with the Wellness Department Manual and contribute to its periodic review and update.
3. Manage any delegated budget in line with ONA policies and procedures.
4. Contribute to integration and collaboration within the Wellness Team, community and partners.
5. Actively participate in assigned ONA events.
6. Other duties as appropriate and required for this position.
